

MILLARS
CONNEMARA

“Quite simply one of Irelands most superior stores”

For well over a century Millars Connemara has been trading in Clifden, Co. Galway. Steeped in tradition and style, Millars continues to excel as one of the most superior stores of its kind in the country.

Millars Connemara has had a foothold in Irish style since the company was founded in 1900 by Robert Millar. Millars Connemara first opened its shop on Market Street in 1900 and in 1950 relocated to its landmark building of today on Main Street, Clifden.

Since then the shop has grown and evolved into a unique shopping experience combining traditional with contemporary. Over the years many famous guests and visitors have passed through the doors including Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco who visited the store for the first time in 1967, returning again in 1979.

At the very heart of Millars is its exceptional customer service. Our discerning customer can find exclusive collections including fashion, gifts, occasional furniture and more.

We look forward to welcoming you to Millars.

Connemara Hidden Treasure

Here at Millars, there is truly something for everyone. We stock a range of exclusive designer collections including ladies and gents fashions, accessories and gifts.

We carry a variety of contemporary labels, including Annette Gortz, Oska, Crea and Xenia to name a few. We also have fabulous rainwear from Rains Denmark.

We stock a range of classic Irish brands, such as Dubarry, Ireland's Eye, McConnell and John Hanly tweed. In addition to our homegrown brands, we also carry international labels such as sustainable clothing brand Eco Alf.

For the perfect finishing touch, we have a large selection of Irish and international accessories including Foxford scarves, Aine knitwear hats, scarves and shawls as well as printed silk scarves by Irish designer Niamh Daniels. We also stock a range of jewellery collections including international brands Dansk Smykkekunst and Bangle-Up.

Whether it's a gift for yourself or a loved one, our homeware collection has something to complement every home from cushions and throws to candles and ceramics.

With many fabulous Irish and international brands all under one roof, a trip to Millars is a truly unique shopping experience and the perfect place to pick up a reminder of your trip to Connemara.

Contemporary Style

We carry a range of continental ladies fashion labels including Annette Gortz, Crea, Oska, Mos Mosh and Rains Denmark. There is truly something for everyone here at Millars.

OSKA

OSKA

Oska do not fabricate short-lived trends. They design casual and elegant fashion which emphasises the individual personalities of their customers. Their designs let you feel good while their flexible fits give you freedom to move.

crea CONCEPT

Crea Concept

Crea is a contemporary blend of style and individuality. Characterised by a modern aesthetic, their cool, timeless collections are inspired by architecture, modern art and urban culture.

Mos Mosh

Mos Mosh simply love jeans. They know jeans, leave nothing to chance and are devoted to tasteful details and good fits. This unique collection also includes delicate tops, rugged jackets and fine leather garments.

annette görtz

Annette Görtz

Fashion creations by Annette Görtz are truly timeless, natural and to the point. Clear cuts and a natural colour palette signifying femininity and timelessness are the labels trademarks. It truly is a brand for the modern day woman.

Homegrown Brands at Millars

At Millars, supporting Irish design is very important to us. We stock a range of fabulous Irish collections from brands such as John Hanly, Foxford, McConnell, Niamh Daniels and Ecotree, a 100% cashmere label that is designed and made in Ireland.

JOHN HANLY & Co. Ltd.

John Hanly
John Hanly & Co. Ltd specialises in the manufacture of scarves, throws and fabrics in wool, cashmere, lambswool and mohair. With over 125 years in the textile business, the brand is synonymous with excellent craftsmanship, outstanding quality and timeless beauty.

MCNUTT
OF DONEGAL

Mc Nutt of Donegal
Inspired by the rugged coastline of the Wild Atlantic Way, McNutt of Donegal has been producing some of the world's finest weaves for over 60 years. Using the very best quality wool, combined with excellent local craftsmanship they produce luxurious scarves and throws.

MCCONNELL

Mc Connell
Created from all natural yarns with a colour palette inspired by the dramatic coastline of the West of Ireland, McConnell knitwear are stunning textural statements appealing to both the eye and touch. It is wearable art that is contemporary, looks good and makes the wearer feel great.

FOXFORD

Foxford
Foxford is a lifestyle brand famous for its textiles woven in the West of Ireland since 1892. Using the finest quality materials, they produce contemporary homewares alongside their classic weaves.

Niamh Daniels

Niamh Daniels
Inspired by the ever changing landscape of the West of Ireland, Niamh Daniels creates 100% silk scarves with prints influenced by fine art. Combining strong use of colours with her own drawing, painting and photography style the end result is striking yet wearable.

Dubarry

Taking design inspiration from the Wild Atlantic Way, the iconic Dubarry brand produces high quality shoes, boots and outerwear suitable for all your outdoor pursuits. The range also includes clothing and accessories for both ladies and gents.

For Men at Millars

Promoting Irish fashion is something close to our hearts here at Millars. In our men's collections we stock a range of classic Irish brands suitable for all ages such as Dubarry, McConnell knitwear, John Hanly tweed and Ireland's Eye knitwear.

In addition, to our beloved homegrown brands, we also carry a number of exciting international brands such as Eco Alf. Established in 2009, Eco Alf is a truly sustainable brand using groundbreaking technology to create clothing made from recycled plastic waste from the ocean.

Accessories

Here at Millars, we believe in the power of accessories to transform an outfit. We carry an extensive range of carefully chosen Irish and international accessories such as scarves, handbags and jewellery.

Printed silk scarves by Niamh Daniels, Foxford lambswool scarves and merino wool scarves, shawls from McConnells and 100% cashmere scarves and hats from Ecotree provide the perfect finishing touch. Striking jewellery from Danish label Dansk Smykkekunst and colourful enamel jewellery from Parisian brand Bangle Up add a touch of elegance to any outfit. We also carry a small but perfectly formed collection of handbags and backpacks from Soruka, HandedBy and Tampicobags .
